Statement of Defiance

We, the undersigned, urge the people of Australia to oppose and to prevent, hinder and obstruct all uranium and nuclear projects undertaken by or in association with the Australian Atomic Energy Commission (including the Ranger Project at Jabiru in the Northern Territory) by —

- (1) speaking and writing against uranium mining and nuclear power;
- (2) boycotting or supporting the boycotting of uranium mining and nuclear power projects. We realise that the law is drafted so widely that signing this document may, by executive act, be brought within the scope of existing offences and thus be rendered unlawful: maximum penalty, a fine of $10,000 or 12 months gaol.
